

There is a morgue, a chapel and a fall in the new Union Station at Chicago.

The above prize Clydeadales is one of a shipment of six spools which were shipped from Glasgow recently on the Canadian Pacific ship "Metagama," for Mr. James Torrance and Mr. Wm. Melnar, Toronto. The exporters are Messrs. A. Montgomery and Co., of Kirkcaldy, Scotland. The opinion of the experts is that this is the best cloth of the kind ever made.
